18. Interdisziplinäre Wochen der Fachhochschule Kiel
Meet Sarah Arnd Linder a Danish Jew and founder of the initiative “Political is Personal – PiP”, an initiative which conducts in-depth interviews with Israeli and Palestinian women in which they safely and freely share how their lives have been affected by the realities of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Their stories tell how the conflict is perceived and experienced by women from different backgrounds and reveal some of the hidden sides of the conflict. In the lecture Sarah will share the voices of the women, the themes that came up in the interviews and why “Political is Personal” is needed. She will take questions and comments during the presentation to encourage a fruitful dialogue.
